

Bush criticizes Clinton

OMAHA, Neb. — Former President George Bush broke a self-imposed silence yesterday and attacked President Clinton for taking credit for the U.S. economic recovery. Bush has been stumping for Republican candidates in the Midwest this week. “He has the nerve to blame the Republicans for his own failures and the shortcomings of the Democratic Congress,” the former president told a crowd of about 1,500 people in Omaha.