

HOMESTEAD

Mrs. Carl Werner and sister Lotta of Amama were visiting with relatives and friends last week.

Mrs. John Geiger jr., of Cedar Rapids visited here last week. Mrs. John Geiger, sr., returned with her for a short visit in Cedar Rapids.

Eggs took a drop last week. A part of a car load of onion sets were shipped to the market by truck last week.

John Geiger, jr., of Cedar Rapids underwent an operation at the hospital in Ottumwa. He is reported to be improving nicely.

Herman Pickett of Iowa City was visiting with friends in this community one day last week. He also took the opportunity to visit his farm near here.

Fred Moershel left last week on his trip, visiting Okmaha and Clarinda. He will travel through the west.

Some people will get their lessons from accidents and some from suffering.

Fred Meyer, jr., the manager of the hog farm, received a purebred Hampshire hog here last week. The animal was sent by express from Ames.

The funeral services for Fred Zopf were held last Wednesday; and a large number of his relatives and friends were present to pay their last respects to this good man.

John Pauchet left last week on a vacation trip which will extend to New York state.

George Leger purchased three hundred baby chicks last week.

John Geiger, sr., went to Cedar Rapids last week to visit with his son, John, who is in the hospital.

Merlin Spratt, and his father, Mick Spratt, went to Cedar Rapids the latter part of last week for the purpose of having their automobile repaired. Another car ran into the Spratt car a few days ago badly damaging it.

Some Indians were here last week selling home made baskets.

Lincoln said: "Nearly all men can stand adversity, but if you want to test a man's character, give him power."

Money is an invaluable servant. As a matter it is a devil.

Two trucks loaded with automobiles passed through here one day last week. Each truck held four cars.

W. Peck of Iowa City was visiting here Saturday with his many friends.

The Belman-Dickel wedding which was solemnized at Middle Amama last Thursday was well attended. The young couple grew up and favorably known and have scores of friends who wish them much luck and happiness in their married life.

Mrs. Fred Zopf will hold a christening on the 25th.

Mrs. Rosa Rosman of Amama died Sunday afternoon. She was 84 years of age.

Walter Wagner is driving a new car.

A Chevrolet car parked near the Ehrly home last week caught fire from some unknown cause. The fire started in the cushions. A passerby noticing the smoke coming from the car turned in an alarm and the fire was soon put out, doing some damage to the automobile.

Mertin Hagen has invented a seed attachment for a disc, and it is now possible to disc and seed at the same time. The invention should prove a boon to the farmer and no doubt will revolutionize the farming industry.

Ed. Vogt shipped a car load of hogs to the market. Saturday of last week.

A family purporting to be from Arkansas was here last week begging food and cash. It is said that a number of such people are abroad in the land and most of all of them are impostors.

A car load of cedar posts was unloaded here last week.

The confirmation class had their examination last Sunday.

Henry Ahrens had fifty hog feeders built at Amama and he has sold most of them.

Mrs. F. Riehm of Middle Amama was visiting here last week at the L. Morse home.

E. Sobrig, the tailor at East Amama, was visiting here last week with his many friends.