SANFORD — Mrs. Donald Dunn, speaking at a meeting of Norman deVere Howard Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, stressed the importance of preserving the Southern heritage which, she noted, "has served our nation well."

She said also, "No section has surpassed the Southern States in percentage of volunteers in our Armed Forces.

"Winston Churchill said 'No nation can long survive without pride in its heritage,' and the United Daughters of the Confederacy who are dedicated to their objectives can but agree," she said.

New chapter members are Mrs. H. T. Rempo, Mrs. T. E. McDaniel and Mrs. W. B. Heath.
