Letters to the editor

GOP candidates sheer poetry

Editor, The Advocate:

America the Beautiful, or so you used to be,

Land of the Pilgrim's Pride — I hope they never see

Babies piled in dumpsters, abortion on demand

Sweet land of liberty, your house is on the sand.

People wander aimlessly, poisoned by cocaine,

Choosing to indulge when God said to abstain.

From sea to shining sea our country turns away

From the teaching of God's Word and the need to always pray.

Phoney TV pastors tell lies about our Rock,

Saying God is going broke so they can fleece the flock.

We've voted in the government that's rotting at the core,

Appointing Godless judges who throw reason out the door.

Too soft to place the killer in his well deserved tomb,

But brave enough to kill the child before he leaves the womb.

You think God is not angry that our land's moral slum?

How much evil will he watch before his kingdom comes?

How are we to face our god from whom we cannot hide?

What is left for us to do to stem this evil tide?

If we who are called would humbly turn and pray,

If we would seek his holy face and leave our evil way,

Then god would hear form heaven and forgive our sin.

He'd heal our sickly land and those who live within.

But America the Beautiful, if you don't then you will see

A sad but holy God withdraw his hand from thee.

Poem by David Hungerford

My vote is for George Bush, Steve Holzheuser and Jack Pitts. These men are fighting to save the lives of our pre-born children and they share the same values that I believe in.
